

Terra ARK AND URBAN FOREST PROJECTS PTY LTD

Are proud to host a pertinent and informative seminar that should not be missed by anyone involved in the development industry, related design professions or as managers of our urban trees, which form the backbone of our "Green Infrastructure" and the Urban Forest.

The Full Day Seminar is to be Presented by

KEY INTERNATIONAL GUEST SPEAKER

DAVID EVANS (UK)

"TREES AND DEVELOPMENT THE ROOTS TO BEST PRACTICE"

Friday 19TH MARCH 2010
(strictly limited places available)

David will be supported by:

Lyndal Plant* - Brisbane City Council

Tony Cockram* - Gold Coast City Council

and

Sean Freeman* - Terra ARK

VENUE: Victoria Park Golf Complex and Function Centre Herston Road, Herston.

<http://www.victoriaparkgolfcomplex.com/contact.html#findus>

Trees and Development – The Roots to Best Practice is an important seminar that everyone involved in the management or interaction with trees in the urban landscape should not miss. Core to the presentation will be the interpretation and application of the recently released Australian Standard AS 4970: 2009 Protection of trees on development sites

Please note that places are limited and we advise early booking to ensure you are part of this unique presentation.

Download Seminar Brochure and Register Online www.terraark.com

Or contact us: Email: admin@terraark.com Phone: 0755767049